

THE MODERN-DAY TECHNOLOGY LEADERS

PEOPLE TO WATCH AS THEY RISE

Black Engineer of the Year Awards Conference | February 17–19, 2005 | Baltimore, Md.

Join us in honoring some of the most promising young people in America:
The Modern-day Technology Leaders.

These bright, young, up-and-coming women and men who are shaping the future of engineering, science, and technology will be recognized at a special leadership luncheon during the 19th Annual Black Engineer of the Year Awards Conference. They also will be profiled in the official conference publication, US Black Engineer & Information Technology magazine.

Select a candidate you know to be worthy of this honor, and send us information about him or her on the attached form by November 15, 2004. Please include a color photo and a short bio of your candidate. A copy of our photo guidelines also is attached.

Help us give your young stars the recognition they deserve.
